

SDG Impact Lab Masterclass Series

The SDG Impact Lab Masterclass Series is an eight-week course focused on how to make progress towards the SDGs. It is underpinned by three core curriculum areas: Ethics, Evidence and Engagement. Each session will focus on one or more of the SDGs with expert input from Oxford faculty and invited guests. There will be group and peer-learning components as well as case studies of projects delivered by previous Lab Fellows

	How to change the world	SDG Focus	SDG Goals
E t h i c s	How to change the world: Ethics, evidence, engagement	SDG Impact: What kind of leadership is needed to make real progress? Guest Speaker: Prof. Mette Morsing, Professor of Business Sustainability and Director to the Smith School of Enterprise and the Environment
	Purpose: Identifying your contribution	Education Guest Speaker: Dr Mark Henstridge, CEO of Oxford Policy Management and Co-Director of the Research on Improving Systems of Education (RISE) programme
	Judgment: How to work in a world of conflicting principles, goals and consequences	Health and wellbeing Guest Speaker: Prof. Proochista Ariana, Associate Professor International Development and Health, Director of MSc in International Health and Tropical Medicine
E v i d e n c e	Character: Who do you need to be to do what you want to do?	Sustainable food systems and ecosystems Guest Speaker: Prof. Sir Charles Godfray, Director, Oxford Martin School, Director, Oxford Martin Programme on the Future of Food
	Observation	The energy transition Guest Speaker: Charlotte Houghton, Carbon Reduction Manager, University of Oxford
	Evaluation	Sustainable mobility in cities and communities Guest Speaker: Prof. Tim Schwanen, Professor of Transport Geography and Director of the Transport Studies Unit
E n g a g e m e n t	Experimentation	The Potential of digital technologies Guest Speaker: Adam Elman, Head of Sustainability for Google Europe, Middle East and Africa
	Delivery: Skills you need to get stuff done	2030 and beyond panel discussion Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mary Johnston-Louis (Senior Fellow in Management Practice at SBS, Co-Director of the Oxford Leading Sustainable Corporations Programme, Chair of B-Lab UK) • Anne Makena (Co-Director, Africa Oxford Initiative) • Harriet Waters (Head of Environmental Sustainability, University of Oxford) 	